Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

I'm giving this space in the newsletter to Diana Moyer this week, our Director of Family Ministries:

“Dear Pastor KrisAnne, Rob, Church Board Members and Congregation,

After much discernment, listening prayer, and processing, I have decided to resign from the position of Director of Family Ministries at Souderton BIC Church. Though my ‘next step’ in vocation is not clear, what has been clear is the message to “let go so my hands can be empty to receive what He has next for me”. There is a season for everything, and I believe my season in this role has come to an end. Stepping out is an act of trust and faith in Who He is and what He has planned for me (and you) going forward.

I am grateful for the opportunity to serve God and all of you these past 7+ years. We've journeyed through two pastoral transitions and I was glad to fill in gaps as needed. I have had joy in providing opportunities for God to grow His people through various intergenerational activities, K-Teams, Retreats, Worship, LiT, VBS, FBE, Kingdom Kids, Disc Golf/Community events, Bible Studies, bringing RamPacks to SBIC, etc. We joined together to be creative and continue to minister and connect through Covid which took much teamwork and willingness to think outside of the box! Thank you to those who have walked alongside me in various and numerous ways. May we continue to allow God to have space to work within our hearts and minds so that we grow as disciples and overflow to those we meet as we journey forward for His Glory.

I anticipate finishing out the ministry year and completing some Kids Min/Family planning for the Fall if desired. I plan to take some time with Erin and Mark in Illinois once the baby is born (Mark will have 2 weeks of paternal leave, then I plan to travel out). We can discuss in more detail what this looks like, and what a good ‘end date’ would be so all bases are covered – administratively and ministry-wise.

Many Blessings,
Diana Moyer

The Lord is my rock and my fortress and my deliverer, my God, my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield, and the horn of my salvation, my stronghold. Psalm 18:2

Diana's last Sunday in her role will be June 1st. We will take time to acknowledge her leadership and ministry among us on that day. Let's pray for Diana as she discerns God's call for her future. Let's pray also for our congregation as we also discern future steps for our children and youth ministries. God has all things in His Hands!
