Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

For the first half of this week, I was at Roxbury Holiness Camp for a BIC class required for my licensing as a pastor within our denomination. In light of that, I want to take this space to share some scripture and encourage you to meditate on it. Read the following passage at least 3-4 times, slowly. Notice the echoes of the Exodus there. Pay attention to the words and phrases that stand out to you. Ask God what He wants you to know based on these truths:

Isaiah 43:1-2, 16-19

1 But now, this is what the Lord says—
he who created you, Jacob,
he who formed you, Israel:
“Do not fear, for I have redeemed you;
I have summoned you by name; you are mine.

2 When you pass through the waters,
I will be with you;
and when you pass through the rivers,
they will not sweep over you.
When you walk through the fire,
you will not be burned;
the flames will not set you ablaze.

16 This is what the Lord says—
he who made a way through the sea,
a path through the mighty waters,
17 who drew out the chariots and horses,
the army and reinforcements together,
and they lay there, never to rise again,
extinguished, snuffed out like a wick:

18 “Forget the former things;
do not dwell on the past.

19 See, I am doing a new thing!
Now it springs up; do you not perceive it?
I am making a way in the wilderness
and streams in the wasteland.
