Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

We get to celebrate another baptism this Sunday - one that is especially exciting for me since the person being baptized is my son! Our brothers and sisters in Iglesia Cristiana are also celebrating a number of baptisms later in the day during their worship service. What a joy to recognize and memorialize the work of the Gospel within the lives of people!

Paul says to the Colossian church in his opening greeting (chapter 1):

⁵...the faith and love that spring from the hope stored up for you in heaven and about which you have already heard in the true message of the gospel ⁶that has come to you. In the same way, the gospel is bearing fruit and growing throughout the whole world—just as it has been doing among you since the day you heard it and truly understood God's grace.

Yes, truly, the Gospel is bearing fruit among us and around us and beyond us! Even when we can't see what God is up to, He is reaching people, prompting people, drawing people to Himself. We rejoice when we get to be part of the miracle of His grace changing lives. We rejoice when we just get to hear the stories of what God has done.

As we celebrate new baptisms this week, take a moment to reflect on your own baptism: How old were you? What prompted you to want to be baptized? Who or what played a role in your decision? Who took part in the ceremony? Were others baptized that day as well? Do you remember any questions you were asked? Did you share your testimony? How is your walk with God different now, than it was then? How have you grown? In what ways have you struggled? Talk to God about anything that comes to mind as you reflect on that moment in your faith journey. Listen for His response.

See you Sunday, church! You are loved!

Next Communion: Aug 10
