Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

Easter is such an exciting season! Creation is waking up from its long winter nap. We enjoy more sunshine each day and the temperatures are rising. I feel my own energy ticking up as the birds return and start building their nests, and the backyard deer and foxes begin playing again.

As we prepare to celebrate the holiday this weekend, I want to share the lyrics of an Easter hymn I love. Take some time to meditate on the poetry and allow God to speak to your heart during this special season:

Hymn of Promise – Natalie Sleeth, 1986

In the bulb there is a flower; in the seed, an apple tree;
in cocoons, a hidden promise; butterflies will soon be free!
In the cold and snow of winter there's a spring that waits to be,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

There's a song in every silence, seeking word and melody;
there's a dawn in every darkness, bringing hope to you and me.
From the past will come the future; what it holds a mystery,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see.

In our end is our beginning, in our time, infinity;
in our doubt there is believing; in our life, eternity.

In our death, a resurrection; at the last a victory,
unrevealed until its season, something God alone can see

Blessings to each one of you as you receive the new life we are promised in Christ Jesus, our crucified and risen Savior. Amen.
