Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

I kept wondering if I should write this article as a look back at Easter Sunday, or a look ahead at the next sermon series starting April 19. My heart is still singing and I am still smiling over Easter Sunday, so I'll take that as God's nudge to look back.

What a gift Sunday morning was! The testimonies we heard from our sisters - how Jesus has met them through creation and camp, through prayer and relationships, in their heartfelt desire to be obedient to His Will. What a blessing to hear how God brought them to this moment when they wanted to give public witness to their faith in Jesus Christ. I counted it a true privilege to see the joy in their faces as they rose up from the (rather cold!) water after being baptized.

The song Candice shared with us keeps replaying in my mind: I am a living, breathing, walking testimony! I am living proof of what the Lord has done. They may call it crazy, but they can't take away my story! 'Cause I am a living, breathing, walking testimony... They said I wouldn't make it, that I should give up. But they didn't know that the God that I serve is more than enough. He can move mountains; He can make broken beautiful. I never run out of hope when I run to the God of miracles... Look what the Lord has done! Look what the Lord has done! Oh, the enemy did what he could, but the Lord, He has used it for good!

And then at the end of the service, we welcomed six new members into our fold. It's so encouraging to see young people who desire to invest their lives in a local congregation, when so many teens and young adults these days have given up on church.

What a blessing to welcome a couple from our ESL program into our fellowship... after only a few months of starting this new program at SBIC, we see how God can bring people together, working in our lives and in students' lives. Imagine what next year might bring, and the next!

Just look what the Lord has done, brothers and sisters! Look what the Lord has done! Praise be to our Risen Lord!
