Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

As we continue to dive deeper into David's story and his journey to the throne of Israel, I thought I would take this space to share one of his many psalms. Tradition says that David wrote this when he was on the run from King Saul, who wanted him dead. David's rich spiritual life is an invitation into prayer and a deeper connection with God. We may not be on the run from people who want to kill us; but there are plenty of demands, struggles and problems that nip our heels and keep after us day after day. Find a few quiet moments to read this Psalm at least 3 times. Allow the words to speak to your heart and draw you into God's Presence in prayer.

Psalm 142 (The Voice translation)

1 I call out loudly to the Eternal One;

I lift my voice to the Eternal begging for His favor.

2 I let everything that's going wrong spill out of my mouth;

I spell out all my troubles to Him.

3 When my spirit buckled under the burdens I bear,

You knew my way.

They conspired to trip me up and trap me on the path where I was walking.

4 Take a look around and see—to the right, to the left—

no one is there who cares for me.

There's no way out of here;

no one cares about the state of my soul.

5 You are the One I called to, O Eternal One.

I said, "You're the only safe place I know;

You're all I've got in this world.

6 Oh, let me know that You hear my cry

because I'm languishing and desperate;

Rescue me from those who torment me

because there's no way I can stand up to them;

they are much too strong for me.

7 Lift my captive soul from this dark prison

so I may render to You my gratitude;

Then Your righteous people will gather around me

because You will treat me with astounding goodness.”
