Pastor KrisAnne's Korner

There's a song I love by Cory Asbury that captures one of the themes in our scripture text for this week. It's called "Water and Dust." Even the title gives us something to meditate on! We are made from mere dust yet so loved by God. We are remade through the waters of baptism, for a new life in Christ, empowered by God's own Spirit ... yet we're still fragile and frail, just jars of clay holding such treasure. Our text this week highlights the beginning of David's journey from shepherd boy to king, and it's just the beginning of years of twists and turns that finally take him to the throne he was anointed for. I think this song would resonate with David during these years of waiting, wondering and struggle:

Water & Dust by Cory Asbury, 2018

One part water and one part dust
Yet You're still making trophies out of us
Making something out of nothing, it's what You do
Yet Your work is never finished and it's never past due

Gently Your voice like a calming embrace
Calls me from out of the noise
You whisper to me: Child, forget not your dreams
As we lie awake in the dark
Just don't lose heart

From the dirt to a throne, with a brand new name
In the blood of the King running through our veins
There's hidden gold in these jars of clay
And all these hidden crowns will be revealed one day
Yeah, we'll lay them down at Your feet one day

Gently Your voice like a calming embrace
Calls me from out of the noise
You whisper to me: Child, forget not your dreams
As we lie awake in the, we lie awake in the
We lie awake in the dark
